Description

ALG-Store is an organization built upon 20 years of experience in engineering, processes and IT domains. Our focus is on building business solutions that will simplify and automate our clients key businesses processes, save time and money, and make them focus on the real values.

Based on new technology and innovative approach we developed SIMBIO - Truly Intelligent Business Platform that combine key business modules for Project and HR Management, Accounting/Expenses Management, Ticketing System, Events/Calendar management, Cloud Document management, Communication/Collaboration tools, Inventory Management, Workflow Management and others into one, centralized and always available business platform.

SIMBIO as a flexible platform allows our clients to use the SIMBIO modules together or separately. Based on their unique requirements we can develop new modules or custom the existing ones.
